

FEBRUARY 28, 2012: SPECIAL EDUCATION DAY AT THE STATE CAPITOL

Join the parents, families and educators of Connecticut's special education students as the Special Education PTO Alliance celebrates special education in Connecticut public schools!

Help raise awareness of special education and its importance to the lives of thousands of Connecticut children.

Rally to support legislation that will maintain funding for special education programs and keep Connecticut's system of special education fair and accessible to parents of special education students and their families.

WHERE: Old Judiciary Room, 3rd Floor, Connecticut State Capitol
210 Capitol Avenue, Hartford

WHEN: February 28, 2012 starting at 10:00 a.m.

WHY: Because if we don't advocate for our children, who will?

Please join us! This free event is open to anyone with an interest in special education. Advance registration by email is requested. Forward your name, your town and the number of people in your group to info@septoalliance.org

Questions? Email the SEPTO Alliance at info@septoalliance.org

Parking: Limited public parking is available in the parking garage next to the Legislative Office Building. The garage has a connector to the Legislative Office Building and the Capitol area at the roof level. On-street metered parking and commercial parking lots are also nearby.

Sponsored by the Connecticut Special Education PTO Alliance